The "Lucerne Summer University: Ethics in a Global Context" offers a specific program for PhD and Doctoral students and a specific program for MA students. PhD and Doctoral students as well as MA students from different disciplines interested in the ethical questions of the present and of the future in a global context could apply for the "Lucerne Summer University: Ethics in a Global Context" under the patronage of UNESCO. The participants will achieve an internationally recognized certificate and 3 ECTS credits will be rewarded for preparation work (20 hours), active participation to the courses (30 hours) and the final paper (25 hours) on the action-based clarification of an ethical issue that is relevant for one's own context and implementing the results accordingly – accompanied by two other participants as mentors.

Good command of English is required. The "Lucerne Summer University: Ethics in a Global Context" is conducted in English in its entirety and students are required to actively participate, both orally and in writing.

Applicants who wish to participate in the "Lucerne Summer University: Ethics in a Global Context" must apply by February 15, 2019. The decision on participation will be communicated within five weeks after the registration deadline.

Applicants should send us the following documents (written in English):

- signed application form
- curriculum vitae (one page/500 words)
- recommendation letters from two professors (300 words each)
- letter of motivation (one page/500 words) that illustrates why you wish to participate in the "Lucerne Summer University: Ethics in a Global Context", what you hope to gain from your participation for your academic career, and how you will implement your new knowledge locally (e.g. on campus, in your community, ...)

Please send the documents via email to: ise@unilu.ch

Grant (financing travel, housing, and meals):

There are no tuition fees. Please note that we are only able to grant a very limited number of grants that will cover travel expenses, housing, and meals to candidates with financial restrictions. Please also consider exploring other sources of financial aid. Your home institution might be able to advise you on financial aid possibilities.

- Because of financial restrictions (please explain below), I want to apply for a grant that will cover my travel expenses, housing, and meals (full board):
