

Exceptions reasons for admission to a bachelor's or diploma's programme until 31st of October in winter semester or until 31st of March in the summer semester.

End of admission period winter semester: 5th of September end of admission period summer semester: 5th of February

Exceptions according to the Austrian University Act § 61 (2)

1. Failure to pass an entrance- or admission procedure or the introductory and orientation phase of another study programme, provided that the result for the winter semester is only available after 31st of August, or for the summer semester after 31st of January;
2. Obtaining the general university entrance qualification after 31st August for the winter semester, or after 31st of January for the summer semester;
3. Late issuance of a residence permit for students in accordance with § 64 of the Settlement and Residence Permit (NAG), BGBl. I No. 100/2005, provided that it is not at fault.

as well as according to the Rectorate's Decree on Admission to Studies

4. it can be credibly established that the enrolment was not possible within the general admission period due to an unforeseen or unavoidable event.