

Academic Communication 2 - Kursbeschreibung

Niveau laut Europäischem Referenzrahmen des Europarats: ab B2

Nötige Vorkenntnisse: Englisch Mittelstufe 2 (B1/2. Phase) (siehe entsprechende Kursbeschreibungen)

UNIVERSITÄT GRAZ

treffpunkt sprachen - Zentrum für
Sprache, Plurilingualismus und Fachdidaktik

Kommunikationssituationen	Vokabular	Grammatik
Written academic communication <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Planning, outlining▪ Developing a thesis statement▪ Presenting your argument▪ Coherence and cohesion▪ Reducing wordiness▪ Organizing and developing a first draft▪ Writing an abstract▪ Features of research articles▪ Lab journals, grant proposals, literature review▪ Editing your work Presenting yourself and your research <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Academic conferences: applying, presenting▪ Networking and small talk▪ CV, cover letter, job application▪ Social media profile▪ Podcasts Incorporating AI into research writing and presentation <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Responsible use▪ Using AI to support your writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Vocabulary for the academic context▪ Vocabulary for style and flow: making assertions, transitions in written work▪ Phrases used in research articles: defining, classifying, contrast/comparison, cause/effect▪ Vocabulary for expressing relationship, data, arrangement, property, influence, inclusion, means, increase, decrease, change▪ Communicative vocabulary: Finding out professional details about your colleague, describing your field	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Review of tenses particularly suitable for academic writing, active and passive▪ Using active verbs▪ Review of hypotheses and how to place them in context▪ Adjectives and adverbs▪ Using linking words▪ Complex and compound sentence structure▪ Text macrostructure: paragraphing, coherence and cohesion▪ Avoiding grammar mistakes commonly made by non-native speakers of English▪ Dealing with problems as they arise