

Dear course participants, in accordance with the coronavirus traffic light system initiated by the Austrian government, courses at treffpunkt sprachen will be taught predominantly in the classroom during phases of green and yellow. When the colour switches to orange or red, all course will be taught online. You teacher will provide further details about the structure of your course in the first lesson.

All information about hygiene and safety measures can be found here.

We are looking forward to welcoming you on the university campus (green/yellow) or online (orange/red) and we wish you a good start into the new semester!

The treffpunkt sprachen team
