

Ph.D. Cristina Civera Mollá
Director of University Extension Service, University of Valencia

Ph.D. Cristina Civera Mollá, is Senior Lecturer in Basic Psychology and member of the Institute of Traffic and Road Safety (INTRAS). She has written hundreds of magazine articles, a quarter of them in journals with impact factor, and a dozen books. She has also been part of several competitive research projects. She has directed over 15 doctoral theses. She is part of many scientific committees of journals and scientific conferences. She has organized and led several international conferences, and other R & D events.

She develops her work as Director of University Extension Service since 2002 at the University of Valencia. She develops and manages Lifelong Learning (LLL). She has been appointed as agent of the University of Valencia in the Valencian Council of training for seniors.