

Dr. theol. Gerhild Wrann

Dr. Gerhild Wrann has been working since 2004 in the development and implementation of educational programmes for people in difficult social situations. The goals of the programmes were to bring people in need into higher education circles.

She was co-founder of the lecture series Megaphon-Uni and Director of the Graz street newspaper Megaphon. Her PhD. research dealt with the implementation and scientific monitoring of educational programmes for people in difficult social situations. In addition to her academic research, she is currently completing her training as a psychoanalyst.