Room and Time: HS 07.02 (Vorklinik), Fri., 1:30 pm - 3:00 pm

First session: 11 October 2019

Course description: This survey course will deal with key developments, timelines and topics in American cultural history over the past 500 years. Aspects to be discussed include Puritanism, the 'American Dream,' the Melting Pot, Slavery, Urbanity, and the 'West.' We will take a closer look at the specifics of what is commonly called 'American exceptionalism' and address questions such as: What makes America unique? In how far is American society indebted to influences from other nations and cultures? How can we explain the enduring fascination with myths and fantasies grounded in America?

Methods: Interactive presentations of important timelines and themes in American history and society.

Assessment: Reading assignments; final exam.

Important note: Alternatives to the scheduled exam dates are not possible!
