

International Conference on the Structure of Hungarian 16 programme

Graz, 28 June 2023 – Day 1 (GMT+2)

- | | |
|--------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:30 – 9:00 | Registration |
| 9:00 – 9:05 | Opening |
| 9:05 – 10:00 | invited talk – Frank Kügler:
On prosodic prominence and focus in Hungarian: Evidence from a cross-linguistic experiment |

Coffee break & Registration

- | | |
|---------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10:20 – 11:00 | Krisztina Polgárdi, András Cser, Beatrix Oszkó and Zsuzsa Várnai:
The emergence of labial harmony in Old Hungarian: a Government Phonology analysis |
| 11:00 – 11:40 | Zsuzsanna Bárkányi and Zoltán G. Kiss:
The production and perception of laryngeal features during phonological transfer: An experimental investigation of Hungarian learners of Spanish and English |
| 11:40 – 12:20 | Péter Rebrus, Péter Szigetvári and Miklós Törkenczy:
Linking vowels are paradigm classes in Hungarian |

Lunch break

- | | |
|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13:30 – 14:10 | Marcel den Dikken:
The syntax of information structure: A relational approach |
| 14:10 – 14:50 | Judit Farkas, Gábor Alberti, Aliz Huszics, Bettina Futó and Judit Kleiber:
How can is 'also' and its synonyms take scope in finite and deverbal constructions in Hungarian? |
| 14:50 – 15:30 | Corinna Langer:
When Syntax and Semantics clash - Hungarian /is/ and Prosodic Focus Marking |

Coffee break

- | | |
|---------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 15:50 – 16:30 | Máté Gulás and Balázs Surányi:
The role of prosody in pre-schoolers' interpretation of negated disjunctive sentences |
| 16:30 – 17:10 | Beáta Gyuris, Cecília Molnár and Hans-Martin Gärtner:
Some Aspects of the Diachrony of 'Ugye' |
| 17:10 – 17:50 | Márta Abrusán:
Variations for Factive Verbs |

9:00 – 9:40	Marcel Den Dikken and Éva Dékány: On collectives with numerals
9:40 – 10:20	Lena Borise and Tamás Halm: The curious case of the two-headed phrase: A generative approach to co-compounds
10:20 – 11:00	Veronika Hegedűs: The case for sublative as a generalized result-marker
Coffee break
11:20 – 11:40	flash talk – Sarah Melker: English loanwords in Hungarian: degrees of linguistic integration in a social media corpus
11:40 – 12:20	Ákos Blaskovics On the role of I-vocalisation in Hungarian vowel harmony
Lunch break
14:00 – 14:20	flash talk – Henrietta Pokk: Verbal and Adverbial Properties: An Old Hungarian Participle
14:20 – 15:00	Ágnes Bende-Farkas: The Old Hungarian Suffix -(n-)ked: A Head-Final Quantifier
Coffee break
15:20 – 16:00	György Rákosi: Possessive traits in Hungarian reflexives and object pronouns
16:00 – 16:40	János Egressy: Selective opacity derived from interleaved embedded-tense projections in Hungarian
Short break
16:50 – 17:45	invited talk – Hans-Martin Gärtner: On the Grammar and Pragmatics of Non-Finite Root Structures
17:45 – 17:50	Closing
19:00	Conference Dinner