

Visa information

Important information (read carefully!)

We strongly advise students to apply for the visa via the Austrian embassy in the country of residence before travelling to Graz.

Studying in Graz for up to 6 months (=180 days) requires a national visa D. As a general rule, you have to apply for and obtain the national visa at the Austrian representative authority (embassy/consulate general) in the country of your residence. Students who live close to one of the Austrian consulates are strongly encouraged to pursue option 1.

Students will make sure to apply for a multiple-entry visa!

General information

- You have to personally appear at the embassy/consulate or visa application center to submit your application and fingerprints
- Your visa entitles you to spend up to 90 days of the total 180 days in other Schengen countries
- If you intend to apply in Slovenia (option 2), Austria must be your first entry point into the Schengen area without any layovers in other Schengen countries on the way!

Option 1: Austrian embassy/consulate (recommended)

- Students from a US-partner university can submit their visa applications at the Austrian representations in Washington DC, New York City or Los Angeles in person, depending on the consular jurisdiction of the representation, see: www.austria.org/consular-services
Visa application centers: when you live within the consular jurisdiction of the embassy in Washington DC, there are visa application centers in Houston, Washington DC and Miami available, please see the website above for more information.
- Students from a Canadian partner university have to submit their applications at the Austrian embassy in Ottawa in person

Option 2: Application at Austrian embassy in Ljubljana, Slovenia

If you hold a US or Canadian passport and study at a US or Canadian university, you can submit the visa application at the Austrian Embassy in Ljubljana (Slovenia) after arriving in Austria. Ljubljana is located 3-4 hours by train or 3,5 hours by bus from Graz.

Important:

- Austria must be your first entry point into the Schengen area without any layovers in other Schengen countries
- You must bring your complete application, including all supporting documents with you when travelling to Graz and you must complete the visa process before your 90-days visa-free period expires!
- Your stay must extend for at least another 91 days starting from the issuing date of the visa! For this reason, you are encouraged to apply as soon as possible after the arrival.
- This option may require to make two trips (application and pick-up) or you stay in Ljubljana for at least 2 working days (=1 night)
- You need to submit 1 pack of originals + 1 pack with copies of your documents, please ensure you have copies before travelling to Slovenia and provide separate packs of copies and originals!
- You need to schedule an appointment with the embassy in advance - if you travel as group, you need to inform the embassy how many students will submit an application
