Academic program
General academic information	https://www.uwec.edu/academics/ Please note an academic advisor will be assigned to you upon acceptance and will work with you to register you for coursework.
Which fields of study are recommended for exchange student? (undergraduate/graduate level)	An academic advisor will work on fitting coursework that fulfils requirements for your program at your home university. Limited or restricted coursework: ☒ Unfortunately, UW – Eau Claire is unable to welcome exchange students in graduate programs. ☒ Unfortunately, exchange students studying at UW-Eau Claire are not allowed to take course work in nursing. ☒ Before completing an application for study in accounting or finance, please send a detailed course / module description for your Introduction to Accounting and Introduction to Finance courses to Inbound/Outbound Mobility Coordinator Rachel Steuer, rsteuer@uwec.edu , to determine if they meet UWEC requirements for enrolling in further accounting and finance courses. There may be limited opportunities for specific Accounting and Finance coursework, due to pre-requisite material required of students studying U.S. accounting and finance methods.
Which fields of study exchange students are not allowed to take? (undergraduate/graduate level)	See above
Link to online course catalog	Course Selection: ☒ For possible course schedules and offerings at UW-Eau Claire, students can browse the class schedule as a guest. See directions www.uwec.edu/registrar/schedules/index.htm . Please note that these are just possible class selections. Not all courses may be available. ☒ Once accepted to UW-Eau Claire, students can expect an email from a UW-Eau Claire Academic Adviser who will assist in registering students for classes. ☒ Students are encouraged to set up email as soon as possible, and check their emails regularly to assist in this process. ☒ Students should be prepared to be flexible and work with their home university for coursework substitutions as needed.
Academic Requirements	If you are a student at one of UW - Eau Claire's partner institutions and have been approved by your home university to study at UW - Eau Claire, you may apply to UW-Eau Claire.

Grading system	http://www.uwec.edu/Registrar/student/Grading.htm Grading System A system of letter grades is used except when the course is offered only on the Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory basis or when the student has elected that option. (See University catalogue for procedures and restrictions.) . A pre-marked "F" indicates that the student has withdrawn from the course after the official deadline. Letter Grades A, A- (A=Excellent) B+, B, B- (B=Very Good) C+, C, C- (C=Average) D+, D, D- (D=Passing) F (F=Failing)
Credit Load per Semester	Students must maintain a minimum of 12 credits, which is considered full-time at UW-Eau Claire. These 12 credits need to be in-person classes or a combination of in-person/online courses. Online only courses do not count towards the 12 credit load required to carry for students to maintain their VISA status.
Minimum/Maximum Workload for exchange students	Spring and Fall Semesters 18 credits is the maximum load for which a student may register without obtaining special permission. Registration for more than 18 credits (including audits) may be permitted by the Associate Dean of the college in which the student is enrolled, if the student has a resident GPA of at least 3.00 and if other conditions make the overload advisable.
