Our course content has been developed around these three main topics:

Cultural Studies

Explore the cultures, society, institutions and history of English-speaking countries.

English Linguistics

Understand the development and structure of the English language.

Literary Studies

Deal with texts from the whole English-speaking world.

An additional value of our programme is its emphasis on English proficiency.
The practical language training is part of the compulsory subjects.

Join us at one of our Q & A sessions!
