

Second call for applications 2026

Joint International Master in Sustainable Development

Join our English-taught Master's programme and become a sustainability change agent, gaining valuable insights into cutting-edge scientific approaches. Our seven partner universities worldwide offer a programme with a strong international focus, including a mandatory mobility semester at one of the partner universities.

Apply by 31 March 2026 (23:59 CEST)

Online application

jointdegrees@uni-graz.at

<https://www.jointdegree.eu/en/sd>

Our programme takes an interdisciplinary standpoint on sustainability issues, offering specialisations in sustainable development from both the natural and social sciences.

You will acquire the skills and competencies required for sustainable development and social transformation, and you will be able to specialise in:

climate change, corporate sustainability management, innovation and transition management, environmental and resources economics, environmental and resources management, global change and sustainability, energy and materials, environmental change and ecosystems, earth system governance, political ecology and society, sustainability as a social science perspective, global development policy, or science and technology for sustainable development.

UNIVERSITÄT
LEIPZIG

Università
Ca' Foscari
Venezia

HIROSHIMA UNIVERSITY

University of Basel

Universiteit Utrecht

school of advanced studies
Knowledge for Sustainable Development
(Deemed to be University under Section 3 of the USC Act)
Accredited by NVAO