

Curatorial Lessons is pleased to announce its educational program designed to provide professional training for emerging curators. With academic education in curatorial practices still in its early stages, our platform aims to fill the need for further professional development. The program seeks to continue the dialogue among colleagues and share the experiences gained with a new generation of curators, art managers, and art theorists.

Our main goal is to cover the basics of curatorial practices and search for new forms, exchange personal experiences, and identify trends in the art industry. Curatorship is a constantly evolving practice, and Curatorial Lessons seeks to analyze the future of this profession. The program will consist of lectures of leading experts, group workshops, and meetings with local art institutions in Graz. It is aimed to educate young specialists in the field of contemporary art, providing an opportunity to deepen their knowledge and, most importantly, learn from the unique practical experiences of renowned curators.

Curatorial Lessons 2026 will take place in Graz, Austria, from 24.09.2026 to 03.10.2026.

Workshop trainers include Sylvia Sadzinski (Germany). Additional curators will be announced soon.

Application deadline: 14.06.2026

Application is free of charge. Selected participants will be asked to contribute a participation fee of 15 EUR. Please note that travel and accommodation expenses are not covered by the organizers. Curatorial Lessons 2026 is part of the educational program of steirischer herbst. In cooperation with the City of Graz.
