

The Faculty of Law at University of Graz offers an

Armin Ehrenzweig Fellowship

to ambitious early-stage-career researchers with outstanding international reputation in the summer term 2026 or the winter term 2026/27

Research topic:

The research topic has to be related to comparative succession law or comparative/European private international law (succession law).

Your Profile (Junior Fellowship):

- You hold an LL.M., Mag. iur. or an equivalent degree in Law
- You are currently working on a PhD thesis in Law
- You have either excellent English or excellent German Language Skills

During your stay:

- You have multiple opportunities to discuss your research project with leading experts in their field at University of Graz
- You are given the opportunity to work on a specific publication project and present your results at the end of your stay

Your benefits are:

- An environment of excellent researchers with know-how in your area
- The chance to carry out interdisciplinary work across faculties at the University of Graz for 2-3 months
- A monthly scholarship of € 1,500 for Junior Fellows
- Travel expenses may be covered up to a certain amount due to presentation activities on the research topic during or shortly after the stay

Please submit your application consisting of the following documents to law.fellowship@uni-graz.at by the 16th of November 2025:

- Your CV
- A list of your publications
- Your research project (max. 2 pages A4)
- An explanation of why the REWI Uni Graz is the right place for your research project
- Supervision agreement (see form) from a faculty member of the REWI Uni Graz
  - You can find all available supervisors here

We are looking forward to your application!