

The Faculty of Law at University of Graz offers two

Christian Fiammengo Fellowships

to ambitious early-stage-career researchers with outstanding international reputation in the summer term 2026 or the winter term 2026/27

Research topic:

The research topic must relate to public international law, with the aim of promoting mutual understanding between nations. Topics relating to peacekeeping and conflict management, as well as the law of armed conflict, are of particular interest.

Your Profile (Junior Fellowship):

- You hold an LL.M., Mag. iur. or an equivalent degree in Law
- You are currently working on a PhD thesis in Law
- You have either excellent English or excellent German Language Skills

During your stay:

- You have multiple opportunities to discuss your research project with leading experts in their field at University of Graz
- You are given the opportunity to work on a specific publication project and present your results at the end of your stay

Your benefits are:

- An environment of excellent researchers with know-how in your area
- The chance to carry out interdisciplinary work across faculties at the University of Graz for 2-3 months
- A monthly scholarship of € 1,500 for Junior Fellows
- Travel expenses may be covered up to € 500 due to presentation activities on the research topic during the stay

Please submit your application consisting of the following documents to law.fellowship@uni-graz.at by the 16th of November 2025:

- Your CV
- A list of your publications
- Your research project (max. 2 pages A4)
- An explanation of why the REWI Uni Graz is the right place for your research project
- Supervision agreement (see form) from a faculty member of the REWI Uni Graz
 - You can find all available supervisors here

We are looking forward to your application!