

FF

UNIVERZA V LJUBLJANI
Filozofska fakulteta

Towards a History of Comparative Literature in a Global Perspective: Matija Murko and his International Collaborator (ARRS, J6-4620)

HISTORY OF PHILOLOGY: Past and Future

An international workshop, part of the Euronotos network (University of Ljubljana; University of Graz)

7 May 2026

Blue Room, Faculty of Arts, University of Ljubljana, Aškerčeva 2, Ljubljana

PROGRAM:

14.00–14.40: Introductory comments

Daniel Wendt (Graz): Philology and the (Un)Making of a Trans-Mediterranean Antiquity

Blaž Zabel (Ljubljana): A Local Philology?: the Case of Slovenian Independence

14.40–16.00: First section (chair: David Movrin)

Danuta Shanzer (Vienna): Hora novissima, tempora pessima?

Kristine Palmieri (LMU): Classics and her Others: Comparative Methods and the History of Philology in early nineteenth-century Germany

16.00–16.30: Break

16.30–17.50: Second section (chair: Blaž Zabel)

Aaron Turner (Knapp foundation; Royal Holloway): “geistlose Empfindung, empfindungsloser Geist!”: Friedrich Hölderlin and the Tradition of Classical Philology

Laura Loporcaro (Ghent): “The most important among all institutions”: Friedrich August Wolf and the Halle University Library