

Renewal, Revival, and Renaissance

25th International Colloquium of American Studies

Czech and Slovak Association for American Studies & Department of English and American Studies at Palacký University Olomouc, Czechia

MAY 22–23, 2026

CALL FOR PAPERS!

Submit your 500-word abstract (incl. short bibliography and 4–7 keywords) and 200-word bio to colloquium.olomouc@upol.cz by December 1, 2025

We invite graduate students, PhD candidates, and established academics seeking to present original research and engage in networking events.

The colloquium's interdisciplinary scope encompasses revival both as a theme reflected in American film, literature, comics, and other media, and as a historical process of (re)discovery and repurposing of the past, driven by a variety of social factors.
