

Sino-Austrian Summer School for Chinese Herbal Medicine

LV 652.506

Organized by Univ.-Prof. Dr. Rudolf Bauer, Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Department of Pharmacogony, University of Graz,
in collaboration with Guangxi Botanical Garden of Medicinal Plants Nanning, Institute for Medicinal Plant Development (IMPLAD), Beijing, and Herbal Medicinal Products Platform Austria

Tentative Date: 25. August - 17. September 2023

Participants: 25 pharmacy students from Graz (15), Innsbruck (5) and Vienna (5)

Tentative course Program: The courses include introduction into TCM principles and materia medica, identification of Chinese herbs and medicinal plants, visits of Guangxi botanical garden, excursions to a TCM pharmacy, TCM hospital, pharmaceutical companies, herb market in Yulin, cultivation sites in Guilin and Yulin, visit of GM-TCM Park in Zhuhai/Macao, etc.

Link with further information:

https://online.uni-graz.at/kfu_online/pl/ui/\$ctx/wbLv.wbShowLVDetail?pStpSpNr=735994

Requirements: Basic knowledge in pharmaceutical aspects of TCM and herbal drugs.

Costs per person: ca. 3200 €, including:

- Flights and accommodation (double room with breakfast, lunch)
- Course fee, transportation, excursions, entrance fees, etc.)
- Sightseeing at weekends (Yilin, Guilin, Longji Rice Terrace, Yangshuo)

Additional costs: ca. 300 Euro (dinner, pocket money)

Preregistration until 15. April 2023 via UGO or by e-mail (rudolf.bauer@uni-graz.at)

1. Vorbesprechung: Mi 22.03.2023 17:00, HS 111.21

2. Vorbesprechung: 17.4.2023, 16:30 Uhr, on-line mit Webex

<https://unigraz.webex.com/meet/rudolf.bauer>

