

Newsletter 3/2019

Results of the General Assembly

The General Assembly held on 10th of May has decided that the executive board of the SOG18 (2019-2022) will be the same than the former one (see website). Also the controllers will be the same ones.

Yearbook N° 2 (2019)

This publication will be dedicated to the subject “The 18th Century as Period of Innovation” and will contain the papers of the conference in Graz (10-11th of May). Deadline for sending the papers to the redaction sog18@uni-graz.at is 31th of August, 2019.

Yearbook N° 3 (2020)

The main topic of Yearbook N°. 3 (2020) will be “Languages and language use in South Eastern Europe in the long 18th century”. This issue will be managed by Daniela Haarmann and Konrad Petrovsky (both Vienna). Further information will be published in Newsletter 4/2019.

Conference Information

The board has decided to prepare the next conference in May 2021 with the title “Windows to new times: Towns and cities in South Eastern Europe in the long 18th century”. This conference will be organized as cooperation project with the Austrian, the Hungarian and the Slovenian Society for 18th Century Studies. Further information will be published in Newsletter 4/2019.

New Publications

The following titles have been recently published by our members:

- Miloš Đorđević, Kraljevstvo Srbija [Kingdom of Serbia] 1718-1739. Niš 2018
- Ivana Horbec, Prema modernoj državi. Uprava i politika u Banskoj Hrvatskoj 18. stoljéca. [Towards a modern state. Administration and Politics in the Kingdom of Croatia and Slavonia in the 18th c.]. Zagreb 2018
- Olga Katsiardi-Hering, La presenza dei Greci a Trieste. La Comunità e l'attività economica (1751-1830). 2 Vol., Trieste 2018 (trad. dal Greco da Vera Cerenzia)
- Dimitris Stamatopoulos, The Eastern Question or Balkan Nationalism(s). Balkan Historiography Reconsidered. Vienna 2018 (Serie: Gunnar Hering Lectures, vol. 1, ed. by Maria A. Stassinopoulou)