At the Faculty of Catholic Theology of the University of Graz, the research focus on gender studies has existed for nearly 30 years. In order to promote internationalisation and to offer its expertise to other faculties and universities which have less prominent or no theological gender competence, the University of Graz has set up an

International Doctoral and Postdoctoral Forum for Gender Studies in Theology and in Religious Studies.

The Forum will support doctoral students and postdoctoral researchers. It is aimed especially at those willing to discuss gender relevant theological questions in their doctoral or postdoctoral theses (“Habilitation”) with qualified researchers. Applicants from disciplines other than theology with gender-specific issues are also welcome (e.g. reception of biblical texts in literature or history of art).

Please send your application for the Forum
