These are separate and administered by different departments!

German study programmes / subjects with special admission processes

General information

- Some admission processes require fee of € 50,-
- Most include online and written parts
- Take place once a year
- If successful valid for the winter and summer semester
- Sports: physical exam, takes place twice a year, valid for the following semester only

Ask yourself:

- When do I want to start my studies?
deadlines for special admission processes differ!
- Do I have the necessary language skills?
for German-speaking programmes you need to have very good German language skills (do you already have C1? when will you achieve this level?)
BUT: language certificate will not be formally checked in special admission processes!
