

Chinese Modernization and its Relevance for International Relations: On the Chinese Concept of Community with a Shared Future for Mankind

by Prof. Ouyang Kang

Huazhong University of Science and Technology

30 APRIL 2024 | 15:00 CET | SR 15.22

The presentation addresses the following topics:

- 1. Historical Perspective: China's Decline and Rise in the Process of World Modernization since 1840;
- 2. Content Perspective: the Rich Contents and Main Characteristics of Chinese Modernization;
- 3. International Perspective: the Main Contribution of Chinese Modernization to the Globalization today;
- 4. Methodological Perspective: the "World View (the View of Tianxia)" in Chinese Culture and the Construction of a Community with a Shared Future for Humanity.

Concluding Remarks: Prof. Franz Winter
(Institute for Religious Studies, University of Graz)

You can find more information here

PROF. OUYANG
KANG

Prof. Ouyang Kang is a former Vice President of Huazhong University of Science and Technology (HUST), Director of the Institute of Philosophy, President of the National Institute of Governance, Director of the National College Student Cultural Quality Education Base and a Chief Editor of the Journal of HUST for Social Sciences. Dr. Ouyang is a leading scholar in the fields of national spirit, cross-culture studies, social epistemology, social information and philosophy in China.