Guest lecture Jessica Conrad

Fulbright-Botstiber Visiting Professor, Clayton State University

IMAGINING OTHER WORLDS: NARRATIVE AS PROTEST

How do we inspire change?

How does literature allow us first to see and then to make the world anew?

This presentation draws on Dr. Jessica Conrad's Fulbright teaching and research project on American protest literature and culture. The presentation explores the ways narrative forms can envision changes to our world that challenge the status quo, inspiring activism in social and environmental justice.
