

ALUMNI UNI GRAZ &
POSTDOC OFFICE PRESENT

alumni post.talks: International Research Careers

March to
May 2022
1pm–2pm

REGISTRATION (UNTIL
1 DAY BEFORE THE EVENT):
ALUMNI@UNI-GRAZ.AT

We work for tomorrow

alumni.uni-graz.at

IMPRINT alumni UNI graz + PostDoc Office, University of Graz © 2022 | Layout: Melanie Mautner, Communication and Public Affairs, University of Graz

- What is it like being a postdoc in Australia, Sweden and Belgium?
- What are the challenges and benefits of embarking on an international career after your PhD?
- How do natural scientists, legal studies scholars and humanities researchers trained in Graz contribute to international academic discourse?

Alumni of the University of Graz pursuing international research careers talk with postdoctoral researchers currently working in Graz about these issues and more!

REGISTER AND JOIN THE DISCUSSION!

MARCH 23, 2022

Molecular biologist Barbara Koch (Melbourne) talks to molecular biologist Katharina Kainz (Graz). Welcome by Vice-Rector for Research and Career Development Joachim Reidl

APRIL 21, 2022

German studies scholar Helga Müllneritsch (Uppsala) talks to german studies researcher Isabella Managò (Graz) and medieval historian Amelia Kennedy (Graz)

MAY 23, 2022

Tax law researcher Luisa Scarcella (Antwerpen) talks to tax law researcher Anna-Maria Anderwald (Graz)

REGISTRATION (UNTIL 1 DAY BEFORE THE EVENT):

alumni@uni-graz.at

ADDITIONAL TRAINING OFFER FOR DOCTORAL AND POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCHERS

APRIL 7, 2022 (9AM–5PM)

Workshop with tenure-track coach Ute Riedler: Strategies for International Academic Careers: Take strategic decisions to start your scientific career and develop as an independent researcher after your PhD.

REGISTRATION ONLINE

<https://doctoral-academy.uni-graz.at/en/services/transerable-skills>

