

Maria Barămova

PhD, Assistant Professor of Modern Balkan history at the Department of History of Byzantium and the Balkans, in the Faculty of History, Sofia University „Sv. Kliment Ohridski“

Publications

- (ed. with Grigor Boykov, Ivan Parvev), Social Networking in Southeastern Europe, 15th-19th Centuries. Berlin/Münster 2017 (in print)
- (ed. with Grigor Boykov, Ivan Parvev), Bordering Early Modern Europe, Wiesbaden 2015
- (ed. with Ivan Parvev, Plamen Mitev, Vania Racheva), Power and Influence in Southeastern Europe, 16th-19th century. Berlin/Münster 2013
- (ed. with Ivan Parvev), Two Hundred Years on the Road "Balkan Peninsula" (1808-2008), Sofia 2014
- (ed. with Plamen Mitev, Ivan Parvev, Vania Racheva), Empires and Peninsulas. Southeastern Europe between Karlowitz and the Peace of Adrianople 1699-1829, Berlin/ Münster 2010

Research Interests

History of Southeastern Europe, 16th-18th century; History of Ottoman-Habsburg Political Relations, Geopolitics, Warfare, Peace treaties, Historical Geography and Environmental History