

Newsletter 1/2020

Yearbook N° 2 (2019)

This yearbook is going online in the early January under <http://unipub.uni-graz.at/sog18>

Yearbook N° 3 (2020)

Yearbook N° 3 (2020) is dedicated to the subject “Languages and language use in South Eastern Europe in the long 18th century”. The editors encourage kindly to send some suggestions and ask to spread the call within the existing networks. Students in an advanced Master's or PhD program are also welcomed to contribute. Please send your abstract till latest 28th of February 2020 to danielahaarmann@icj.at and konrad.petrovsky@oeaw.ac.at.

Yearbook Nr. 4 (2021)

This yearbook will contain some articles to the subject “The Balkan Society between Lethargy, Irritation and Aggression. Studies on History of Emotions in the long 18th century”. The call for abstracts will be published with Newsletter 2/2020 (April).

Conference Information

The SOG18 conference to the subject “City and Future: Europe and its South East in the long 18th century” will be organized as cooperation project with the Austrian, the Hungarian and the Slovenian Society for 18th Century Studies at 27th-29th of May, 2021 in Graz. The call for abstracts will be published with Newsletter 2/2020 (April).

New Publications

Our board member Maria Barãmová has published her postdoctoral thesis “Translacija na mãgušcestvo. Dogovarjaneto na miru meždu Habsburgite I Visokata Porta” [The translation of power. The peace negotiations between the Habsburgs and the Ottoman Porte]. Sofija 2019.

Others

Our board member Olga Katsiardi-Hering has participated at the conference to “The Greeks and the Balkans (1453-2019)” in Komotini, 22th-24th of November, 2019, see: <http://www.he.duth.gr/conference/>