

Newsletter 1/2022

Yearbooks N° 4 (2021) – N° 6 (2023)

N° 4 (edited by Ivan Pärvev) with the focus on Emotion History is going online in a few days.

N° 5 (edited by Maria Barămovă and Harald Heppner) with the focus on Landscape Changes will be published at the end of 2022: the authors are going to work out their papers.

Yearbook N° 6 (edited by Greta Miron and Dragana Grbić) will focus on the subject Antiquity and Orthodoxy in the 18th century. This volume is dedicated to the XVIth Congress of the International Society for Eighteenth Century Studies in Rome (July, 2023). The call for papers will be sent out with Newsletter 2/2022 (April).

General Assembly

The General Assembly will be held on 20th of May, 2022 in the afternoon in a hybrid manner: physically at the university of Sofia (if possible, see below) and online. The members will get the invitation at time.

Conference Information

The university of Sofia is preparing a conference on 19th and 20th of May with the title Networks and Mechanisms of Influence in the Regional Economy. Balkan and European Contextualization of the Archival Heritage of Evlogy and Hristo Georgievi. The SOG18 will join as cooperation partner.

ISECS Early Career Seminar (2022)

This seminar with the title “Wartime Memory” will be organized by the SOG18. The deadline for the applications will finish at 31st of January. The call may be downloaded at the SOG18-website.

Personal News

Ivan Pärvev (Sofia), the vice president of the SOG18 board, got on 27th of October 2021 at the university of Graz from the Faculty of Humanities the title of Doctor honoris causa.

Maria Barămovă (Sofia), member of the SOG18 board, got the “Peregrinus”-Price (Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences) for her excellent work on history of the Balkans in Early Modern Time.