AUSSEER GESPRÄCHE 2023: Verantwortung in krisenhaften Zeiten

The Ausseer Talks, which take up the tradition of intellectual and artistic summer holidays in the Salzkammergut, have been taking place annually since 2009 and bring science and art to Austria's core landscape. Well-known researchers and artists from a wide range of disciplines and all ages will spend three days discussing together with students and interested parties on site. In lectures, seminars, panel discussions, concerts, productions and readings, themes of our time are discussed from the humanities and natural sciences, but also from an artistic research perspective.
