7th International Conference on Multicultural Discourses

Theme: Multicultural Discourses in a Turbulent World

The successful international conferences on Multicultural Discourses organized in China, Brazil, and the Netherlands, respectively, have reinforced the importance of Cultural Discourse Studies in contemporary social science and the humanities. The 7th International Conference on Multicultural Discourses, under auspices of the International Association of Multicultural Discourses, will be co-organized by the English Department of the Faculty of Letters, Babes-Bolyai University, Romania and the School of Contemporary Chinese Communication Studies, Hangzhou Normal University, China. The event will be hosted at the Faculty of Letters, Babes-Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca, Romania between October 24 and October 25, 2020. Due to the epidemiological situation, the 7th International Conference will be an on-line event. Details about the platform where the conference will take place will be sent at the beginning of September 2020. A selection of the papers read during the conference will be published in the renowned Journal for Multicultural Discourses, a publication of Taylor & Francis.

Mankind is witnessing yet again the centennial moment of global transformation and the world is ridden with grave challenges and great opportunities. To answer to these uncertain winds of change, scholars from various fields such as communication, media, language, literature, society, culture, international relations, etc. are encouraged to offer their insights into topics including, though not restricted to, the following:

Multicultural discourses of (anti)globalization, diversity, connectivity, globalism

Multicultural discourses of security, conflict, war, peace

Multicultural discourses of protectionism, (in)tangible borders, immigration, racism

Multicultural discourses of development, the Developing World, the Global South

Multicultural digital, multimodal, literary, cinematic discourses

Multidisciplinary, multicultural approaches to human discourses

Abstracts of about 250 words, panel proposals of about 500 words (of min 4 speakers with 250 words abstracts) should be sent to the organizers at the following email address: <multiculturaldiscourses7@gmail.com>

Deadline for submission of abstracts and panel proposals: September 1, 2020.

Notification of acceptance will be sent out not later than September 10, 2020.
