RECOMMENDATIONS FOR SUMMER SEMESTER COURSES

Media, Culture, Society (Gender & Generations in a Digital World)

What is aging? What is a generation? What does it mean to age in the digital era? How can you conduct your own research? If you've ever wanted to know more about, aging, generations, gender, digital technologies, storytelling and how to do hands-on research - then join professor Ratzenböck's proseminar Media, Culture, Society (Gender & Generations in a Digital World). The proseminar carries 6 ECTS and is part of the Certificate in Inter-American Cultural Studies. For more information, please visit UGO

Contemporary Issues for Women in Law

This course analyzes the current situation of women in legal professions and raises awareness in female students and male allies for challenges and obstacles women face in their legal careers. It focuses on 5 areas, which will be discussed in an interdisciplinary setting: bias: conscious or unconscious; creating awareness and dealing with it; flexibility and agility: opportunities and threats of modern working environments; diversity / inclusion / intersectionality: going beyond gender ; threats: physical and mental health, multiple responsibilities; reaching the top: overcoming career obstacles.
