

In the framework of the Course (in English) "Middle East and Christianity" of Univ.-Prof. DDr. Pablo Argárate, we would like to invite you to two highly-relevant lectures

Christians in the Holy Land

Dr. Ephrem About Ishac (Aleppo/Syria)

Christians and especially Arab Christians are faced today with a strong challenge that has to do with the quest of identity and the conflicts that this brings: to be Arabs and Christians at the same time. Is there a future for them?

Christianity in the Banks of Nile

D.I. Amir Istfanous (Egypt/Graz)

This lecture deals with the cultural roots in the land of Egypt, and the Coptic Church, from its beginnings until today; challenges posed to Christians in a stormy time in Egypt as well as the relationships among different Christian confessions there.
