

Arqus Winter School 2021

Rethinking climate risk

Be part of the Interdisciplinary winter school on the topic „Rethinking climate risk in European cities“ and become an ambassador for the University of Graz

What to expect

Who it is for

Open for master students of Environmental Systems Sciences (Economics, Management, Geography, Natural Sciences/Technology), Sustainable Development, Circular Economy, Political, Economic and Legal Philosophy, Global Studies, and others at the University of Graz

An intensive five-day interactive and interdisciplinary workshop with students from all seven Arqus universities.

What is included

How to apply

Application documents: motivation statement, transcript of records, reference letter, CV to be sent to arqus@uni-graz.at Selection criteria: motivation, experiences in the field „Climate Change“, academic performance, extracurricular activities

Deadline for applications: 21 December 2020

More information: <https://european-university.uni-graz.at/de/aktivitaeten/calls/>

Arqus Winter School 2021: Rethinking climate risk

Monday Feb 22nd

Morning:

Welcome and introductions

online lectures on „Rethinking climate risk and science“

Moderated discussion

Afternoon:

Local workshop:
Creatively introducing each city and its climate risks.

Tuesday Feb 23rd

Morning:

Introductions

online lectures on
„Mapping the natural causes of climate risk“

Intro to the workshops

Afternoon:

Local workshop:
Interpreting maps of climate risks.

Plenary: students share their mapping work.

Evening: Virtual speed dating.

Wednesday Feb 24th

Morning:

Introductions

online lectures on
„Making connections: climate risk and societal transformation“

Intro to the workshops

Afternoon:

Local workshop:
Systems mapping.

Communication and dissemination workshop.

Thursday Feb 25th

Morning:

Introductions

online lectures on
„Scenarios of responding to climate risk“

Panel discussion:
„Governing climate risk“

Intro to the workshops

Afternoon:

Local workshop:
Plotting future scenarios.

Plenary: students share their systems maps and scenario work.

Climate risk quiz.

Friday Feb 26th

Morning:

Arqus Forum on „Climate risk and European Citizenship“

Intro to the citizenship workshop

Afternoon:

Inter-university workshop:
Engaging with climate risk.

Closing session