Application and Admission

After you have successfully submitted your application, the academic coordinators of the partner universities will select those applicants who fulfil the selection criteria and will then be admitted to the program. You will be informed about the results of the selection and admission process by the academic coordinator at the entrance university.

To apply online, go to
<http://jointdegree.biobs.com/>
DEADLINE: 14.01.2020- 31.03.2020

Partner Universities

Degree Awarding Partners:

- ▶ University of Graz, Austria (coordinating University);
- ▶ Ca' Foscari University of Venice, Italy;
- ▶ University of Bamberg, Germany;
- ▶ University of Paris 7 – Denis Diderot, France;
- ▶ Jagiellonian University in Krakow, Poland.

Mobility partners

- ▶ City College of New York, USA;
- ▶ University of Pécs, Hungary;
- ▶ Autonomous University of Barcelona, Spain.

What is the difference between a degree awarding institution and a mobility partner?

Degree awarding institutions are entitled to award the Joint Degree. Mobility partners do not award the Joint Degree. The ECTS credits gained will be counted towards the award of the Joint Degree at the student's entrance university.

Program Structure

The program consists of 90 ECTS taught credits and 30 ECTS for the thesis. You will take compulsory credits in linguistics, literary studies and cultural studies (10-12 ECTS each) as well as in English language proficiency (8-12 ECTS).

Entry Requirements

1. To be admitted to the program, you must have A bachelor's degree or equivalent of at least 180 ECTS in English and American Studies or in another area relevant to the program, e.g. modern and classical languages.
2. Proof of your competence in English in the form of a recognized language certificate (e.g., Cambridge CAE, Michigan ECPE, Trinity ISE 3, Pearson PTE Academic, IELTS, TOEFL IBT).
