

Newsletter 2/2023

Conference Information

The congress of the International Society for Eighteenth Century Studies with the title Antiquity and the Shaping of the Future in the Age of Enlightenment is holding in Rome on 3th – 7th of July, 2023 (see <https://isecs-roma2023.net>).

Some members will participate at the following program:

- Ulrike Tischler-Hofer, Greta Miron and Harald Heppner at the Round Table (on French/Italian, 3th of July)
Changements urbains dans les zones périphériques: Une comparaison interrégionale sur le long dix-huitième siècle/Cambiamenti urbani nelle aree periferiche: Un confronto interregionale nel lungo Settecento.
- Dragana Grbić, Olga Katsiardi-Hering and Greta Miron at the Panel (on English, 4th of July)
Antiquity in Southeastern Europe during the long Eighteenth Century
- Kirila Atanasova, Maria Barǎmova and Ivan Pärvev at the Panel
Travelling East

The international conference to “The beginning of the secularisation in Europe’s Southeast” will be held on 30th of May – 2^d of June, 2024 (The call was sent out with Newsletter 2/2023). The provisory program will be published with Newsletter 4/2023 (October).

Publications

The book with collected studies on “Towns and Change in the Danube-Carpathian area in the long 18th century” (ed. by Mathias Beer, Harald Heppner and Ulrike Tischler-Hofer) has been published at the Edition House Peter Lang. This book contains the articles from two conferences in the year 2021, partly organized by SOG18.