

MILITARY ASSISTANCE ON REQUEST AND THE USE OF FORCE

By Erika de Wet

This book examines the extent which the proliferation of military assistance on request is changing the rules governing the use of force. The author explores the authority to make these requests, particularly during civil wars where some territorial control may be lost and there is a risk of systematic violations of international humanitarian law.

FEATURES

- Offers an authoritative assessment of the legal framework regulating governments' requests for military assistance from third States or international organizations.
- Examines how the proliferation of such military assistance on request has impacted on the rules governing the use of force.
- Systematically maps the post-Cold War practice of military assistance on request, including inter alia the practice of the African Union and the Economic Community of West African States, as well as the situations in Iraq, Libya, Syria and Yemen.

UK March 2020 | ~~£80.00~~ £56.00

US April 2020 | ~~$99.00~~ $69.30

Hardcover | 256 pages

Erika de Wet is Professor of International Law in the Faculty of Law of the University of Graz, Austria, and Honorary Professor in the Faculty of Law, University of Bonn, Germany. She is currently a member of the Scientific Advisory Board for Development Policy of the Max Planck Foundation for International Peace and the Rules of Law; and the General Council of the International Society of Public Law (ICON*S).

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Order online at www.oup.com/academic with promotion code ALAUTHC4 to save 30%