

— Review of —
Central and East European — Law —
brill.com/rela

Panel Discussion

Ideological Backlash in Russia: The Roll-back of 1991?
Legal and Political Implications

28 April 2017

Friday

14:00 – 17:30

University of Graz
RESOWI Building
Faculty's Conference Room SZ 15.21, 2nd floor
(Bauteil A, 2.OG)

Programme

14:00–14:05 Prof. Stefan Storr, Dean of the Faculty of Law of the University of Graz

Welcome Note

14:05–15:30 Prof. Lauri Mälksoo (University of Tartu)

The Russian reading of international law: Crimea and Self-Determination

Prof. Bill Bowring (Birkbeck, University of London)

Law in Russia and the Role of Ideology

Prof. Dimitry Kochenov (University of Groningen)

Values of EU and Russia: Legal Manifestations and Implications (this topic may be subject to a slight change)

Discussion

15:30–15:45 Coffee Break

15:45–17:30 Prof. Peter van Elsuwege (Ghent University)

Dealing with Russia amidst a largely obsolete PCA: are there ways forward?

Prof. Mikhail Antonov (National Research University Higher School of Economics)

Concept of Sovereignty in Russian legal thought

Prof. Joseph Marko (University of Graz, General Editor of the Review of Central and East European Law)

Discussant's Comments and Concluding Remarks

Discussion

Moderator: Aistė Mickonytė, LL.M. (University of Graz)