

Lecture Series #3
Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948-2018:
Global Perspectives on Human Rights

On 14 December 2017, the Assembly of States Parties of the International Criminal Court (ICC) took the historic decision to activate the ICC's jurisdiction over the crime of aggression. This decision is a major step forward for international criminal law and a success for Austrian diplomacy.

Austrian diplomat Nadia Kalb led the year-long facilitation process that aimed to bridge the Member States' different legal readings of the crime of aggression.

The European Training and Research Centre for Human Rights and Democracy (UNI-ETC) and the Institute of International Law and International Relations of the University of Graz are pleased to invite you to a background briefing where Counsellor Nadia Kalb will offer insights into the process and outcome of the intense "closed door" negotiations.
