

AALS SECTION ON EUROPEAN LAW
in conjunction with the European Law Faculties Association

CALL FOR PAPERS

Works-in-Progress (WIP) Panel
AALS, New Orleans, January 2019

The AALS Section on European Law, in conjunction with the European Law Faculties Association (ELFA), invites submissions for a works-in-progress panel at the January 2019 Annual Meeting. Papers may concern any matter related to European Law. Papers must be “in progress” as of the time of the Annual Meeting in January 2019. (A paper accepted for publication but still undergoing revision is considered “in progress.”) This panel will provide speakers the opportunity to present their work and receive feedback from senior commentators in the field. Pre-tenured professors are strongly encouraged to submit.

Papers should be roughly 40-60 pages (double spaced) and include an abstract. Drafts must be submitted by midnight (EST) on August 31, 2018 to erin.delaney@law.northwestern.edu.

Up to four speakers will be selected from this Call for Papers by a sub-committee of the Section appointed by the Chair. Selected speakers will be notified by September 15, 2018.

Confirmed commentators:

Professor Daniela Caruso
Boston University School of Law

Professor Michele Graziadei
University of Torino

Professor Fernanda Nicola
Washington College of Law, American University

Professor Vlad Perju
Boston College Law School