

Licence Agreement Graz Law Working Paper Series

I, _____, grant the University of Graz a perpetual, non-exclusive right to store and publish my paper _____ _____ including the abstract as a Working Paper in the Graz Law Working Paper Series via any electronic medium worldwide. This includes the right to rearrange the above-mentioned paper should its future preservation and accessibility require it.

While every care will be taken to preserve the physical integrity of the e-print, the University of Graz shall incur no liability for the loss or damage to the e-print or associated data. I notice that the University of Graz shall retain the right to remove the Working Paper for professional or administrative reasons, or if it is found to violate the legal rights of any person.

As the author, copyright in the Working Paper remains with me. I warrant this Working Paper contains no violation of any existing copyright or other third party right and to the best of my knowledge this Working Paper does not infringe the intellectual property of any other rights of any third parties. I will indemnify and keep indemnified the editors of the Working Paper Series and the University of Graz against claims and expenses (including legal costs and expenses) arising from any breach of this warranty and the other warranties on my behalf in this agreement. This agreement shall be subject to the laws of Austria and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Graz.

Place, Date

Signature

Your Working Paper will not be published unless the Licence Agreement has been signed and received by the editors of the Graz Law Working Paper Series.

Please submit a signed copy of the Licence Agreement to law.wps@uni-graz.at.