

Contact and Information

University of Graz
Faculty of Law
Maddalena Vivona
Universitaetstrasse 15/AE, 8010 Graz
+43 (0)316 380 6814
indi@uni-graz.at <https://rewi.uni-graz.at/en/research/indi>

Day of
IN(ter)DI(sciplinary)
Research 2021

18 June 2021

University of Graz, Faculty of Law

We work for tomorrow

Program

09:00 – 09:15	Welcome Christoph Bezemek , Dean of the Law Faculty Peter Riedler , Vice-Rector for Financial Affairs, Resources and Location Development
09:15 – 10:45	Climate Change (Chair: Eva Schulev-Steindl) Attila Antal (ELTE): The climate and ecological emergency in the era of state of exceptions Mark L. Wilde (University of Reading): Causation and climate change litigation: a 'bridge too far'?
10:45 – 11:15	Coffee Break
11:15 – 12:45	AI & Autonomous Driving (Chair: Iris Eisenberger) Derya Mentés (Hamburg Institute for Social Research): Overcoming binaries: A proposal to think about human cohabitation with AI Javier Valls Prieto (University of Granada): How to pass from HLEG ethical principles to legal principles
12:45 – 13:45	Lunch
13:45 – 15:00	Digitalization & Cybersecurity (Chair: Bilyana Petkova) Kim Barker, Enrique Uribe-Jongbloed and Tobias Scholz (Open University, Universidad Externado de Colombia, University of Siegen): Digitalisation difficulties: Imposing borders on digital content? Elena Buoso (University of Padova): Digitising public administration in Italy: chances and challenges
15:00 – 15:30	Coffee Break
15:30 – 17:30	Breakout Workshops Climate Change (Chair: Oliver Ruppel) Irene Antonopoulos (Royal Holloway): Aligning human rights language with climate change language to promote climate change resilience Maria Bekiari (LMU): Interdisciplinarity in environmental law: Yes or No? Larissa-Jane Houston (UniGraz/Stellenbosch University): Climate Change and Sustainable Development: There is no one without the other in legislative reform Sanita van Wyk (Stellenbosch University): Climate change and the role of interdisciplinarity within the functional method of comparative law
	AI & Autonomous Driving (Chair: Elisabeth Staudegger) Yibo Li (Utrecht University): Legal and economic analysis of the externality of autonomous cars Susana Aires de Sousa (University of Coimbra): Autonomous cars, serious harms and corporate criminal liability Nynke Vellinga (University of Groningen): Hacking the highway: a legal framework on cybersecurity of automated vehicles Hristina Veljanova (University of Graz): How to design trustworthy automated vehicles? Bridging the gap between SSH and technology design Digitalization & Cybersecurity (Chair: Tina Ehrke-Rabel) Cody Busia (KU Leuven): Keep on keeping on: Electronic identification as a vehicle for continued government service delivery in crisis situations Elisa de Belvis (University of Padova): Digital data and privacy among partners: a critical approach to a technological family law issue Neringa Gaubienė (Vilnius University): Problems of digital assets in court enforcement processes Luana Martin-Russo (European University Viadrina): Transparency made useful: A computational analysis of parliamentary procedure Réka Pusztahelyi and Ibolda Stefán (University of Miskolc): Household social robots – special issues relating to data protection Julia J.A. Shaw (De Montefort University): Investigating the disruptive impact of transformational technologies: 'law, what is it good for?' Tina Ehrke-Rabel, Robin Renwick and Nora Schreier (University of Graz and Trilateral Research): The digital avatar on a blockchain: E-Identity, anonymity and human dignity Peter Pichler (University of Graz): Digitalization as a historical key process in the Styria heavy metal scene, c. 2000 to the present