

INDIVIDUAL PREFERENCES AND SOCIAL CHOICE (IPASC)

Graz, 11 – 12 April 2019

Thursday, 11 April

09:00 – 09:10	Welcome
09:10 – 10:40	Ulle Endriss (University of Amsterdam): “Voting with Incomplete Preferences” Jerôme Lang (University of Paris-Dauphine): “Single Transferable Vote: Incomplete Knowledge and Communication Issues”
10:40 – 11:10	Coffee Break
11:10 – 12:40	Annick Laruelle (University of the Basque Country and IKERBASQUE): “Approval and Disapproval Vote” Antoinette Baujard (University of St. Etienne): “Is Evaluative Voting Empirically Stable under Different Grading Scales?”
12:40 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 15:30	Remzi Sanver (University of Paris-Dauphine): “Procedural Versus Opportunity-Wise Equal Treatment of Alternatives: Neutrality Revisited” Burak Can (University of Luxembourg): “How to Choose a Fair Delegation?”
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee Break
16:00 – 17:30	Davide Grossi (University of Groningen): “Foundations for Liquid Democracy” Umberto Grandi (University of Toulouse): “Goal-based Voting”
19:30	Workshop Dinner

Friday, 12 April

09:00 – 10:30	Jörg Rothe (Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf): “Borda Count in Collective Decision Making: A Summary of Recent Results.” Clemens Puppe (Karlsruhe Institute of Technology): “Resource Allocation by Frugal Majority Rule“
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 – 12:30	Sascha Kurz (University of Bayreuth): “Weighted Committee Games” Stefan Woltran (Vienna University of Technology): “Preference Orders on Families of Sets – Complexity and Characterization Results”
12:30	Lunch
END OF WORKSHOP

<https://finanzwissenschaft.uni-graz.at/ipasc/>

Location:

Graz University

Resowi-Centre

Universitaetsstrasse 15

Room: SZ 15.21, tract A, 2nd floor

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
ECONOMICS AND
SOCIAL SCIENCES

Finanzwissenschaft
PublicEconomics