

WORKSHOP

From Public Finance to Public Economics

Mo, 5th September und Di, 6th September 2022
Karl-Franzens-Universität Graz
HS 111.21 (Beethovenstraße 8, 2. OG)

GRAZSCHUMPETERCENTRE

Monday, September 5th

9.30 am

Introduction: From Public Finance to Public Economics - progress in a criss-cross fashion

Richard Sturn (University of Graz, Austria)

10 am to 11.30 am

What's left of Fritz Neumark? From normative principles to quantitative analysis

Alfonso Díaz Vera (AIReF, Spain)

From Pareto through Atkinson to Piketty: Is the history of inequality measurement predominantly unidimensional?

Ignacio Hauser (Saint-Etienne School of Economics, France)

Coffee Break

11.45 am to 1.15 pm

Pricing Welfare in Postwar France: Economists-Engineers and the Emerging Discipline for Utilities

Raphaël Fèvre (Université Côte d'Azur, France), Thomas Mueller (Université Paris 8: Saint-Denis, France)

Changing Fashions: Welfare Theorems, Market Failures, and the Turn from 'Public Finance' to 'Public Economics'

Steven G. Medema (Duke University, USA)

Lunch Break

2.45 pm to 5 pm

Normative aspects of Samuelson's second optimality condition in optimal taxation from the '70s to the '90s

M. Guillaume Elezgaray (Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, France)

Frank Ramsey's 'Saving' and Morality in Public Finance

David C. Coker, Alain Marciano (Université de Montpellier, France)

Social Choice and Public Economics at the Cowles Commission

Robert W. Dimand (Brock University, Canada)

Tuesday, September 6th

9.30 am to 11.30 am

Samuelson against "Rawls Gratuitism"

Herrade Igersheim (Campus Unistra, France)

Formalising justice, fairness and welfare: when public economics meets political philosophy

Danielle Guizzo (University of Bristol, England), Carles Paré Ogg (Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Spain)

Rawls's maximin and optimal taxation theory

Benoît Walraevens (Université Caen Normandie, France)

Coffee Break

11.45 am to 1.45 pm

Buchanan, Einaudi, and Public Debt

Emma Galli (Università di Roma, Italy), Giampaolo Garzarelli (Università di Roma, Italy)

Tax Justice, Reciprocity, and Good Government:

On Luigi Einaudi's Lost Legacy

Paolo Silvestri (Università degli studi di Torino, Italy)

Closing Remarks

Maxime Desmarais-Tremblay (London), Marianne Johnson (Wisconsin)

Scientific Committee: Maxime Desmarais-Tremblay (London), Marianne Johnson (Wisconsin), Richard Sturn (Graz)

Das Centre ist benannt nach dem berühmten österreichischen Sozialwissenschaftler Joseph Alois Schumpeter, der von 1911–1921 in Graz gelehrt und geforscht hat. Es schafft eine Plattform für Nachwuchsforscherinnen und -forscher, auf der in internationaler Kooperation und mit internationaler Ausstrahlung zu innovativen und relevanten wirtschaftlichen und gesellschaftlichen Themen gearbeitet wird.

RESOWI-Zentrum FE, A-8010 Graz

+43 (0)316 380 3593

schumpeter.centre@uni-graz.at | schumpeter-centre.uni-graz.at

KARL-FRANZENS-UNIVERSITÄT GRAZ
UNIVERSITY OF GRAZ

Graz Schumpeter Centre

