

LANDMARKS of SOUTHEASTERN EUROPE

What images come to your mind when you think of Southeastern Europe?
Which of the region's monuments, landmarks, or architectural styles receive too little attention in the common depiction of Southeastern Europe?

The Centre for Southeast European Studies is launching a photo contest for the new promotional materials of the Joint Master's Programme in Southeast European Studies. We invite submissions of pictures of exceptional landmarks that, although characteristic of the region, are not typical postcard motifs.

The jury will select up to five winners who will be credited on the posters and flyers of the Joint Master's Programme in Southeast European Studies. Each winner will be awarded a 50,- EUR Amazon gift voucher. The submission should include the photographer's name, a title, and a description of the landmark (max. 300 words).
