

Languages in an Open World – LOW 2019 Final Programme

Conference venue: ECML (European Centre for Modern Languages of the Council of Europe), Nikolaiplatz 4, 8020 Graz

Wednesday – November 20, 2019
8:00 – 9:30	Registration and Coffee Break	ECML, ground floor
9:30 – 10:00	Welcome	ECML, conference room
10:00 – 12:00	Oral Presentations	Session 1: Multilingual Settings Chair: Jakob Wiedner Ivana Vučina Simović, Julijana Vučo, Jelena Filipović: Belgrade multilingualism: Past and present Melanie Frank, Peter A. Kraus: The political framing of complex diversity in multilingual settings Agnes Grond: Multilingual Styria: Linguistic repertoires in urban and regional contexts Eva Martha Eckkrammer: Postcolonial power relations and minority languages: new challenges for Europe
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch Break	ECML, foyer
13:00 – 15:00	Oral Presentations	Session 2: Linguistic Diversity and Education I Chair: Cor van der Meer Dörte Borchers: Advocating the local and embracing the global: Languages and education in Nepal Jennifer Monje: 'Starting where the children are': A process evaluation of the mother tongue-based multilingual education (MTB-MLE) implementation Irene Fally, Christina Märzhäuser: Portuguese as a heritage language in Austria – Motivations for maintenance in a globalized world Iryna Semeniuk Zümürtdal: Globalization and English: Current status in Turkey and Ukraine

15:00 – 15:30	Coffee Break	ECML, foyer
15:30 – 17:30	Oral Presentations	Session 3: Visibility of Languages Chair: Angelika Heiling Edina Krompák: Visibility and vitality of non-official languages of superdiverse Kleinbasel in multilingual Switzerland Leonie Gaiser, Yaron Matras: Language community or community language? Arabic in a western global city Karin van der Worp, Jasone Cenoz, Durk Gorter: Multilingualism at the market in the Basque Autonomous Community Katharina Tyrann: The visibility of South Slavic languages in Vienna

Thursday – November 21, 2019
8:00 –	Registration	ECML, foyer
8:30 – 9:30	Keynote	Ben Rampton: Sociolinguistic citizenship
9:30 – 10:00	Coffee Break	ECML, foyer
10:00 – 11:30	Oral Presentations	Session 4: Linguistic Diversity and Education II Chair: Agnes Grond Joana Duarte, Mirjam Günther-van der Meij, Cor van der Meer: Translanguaging as a bridge between languages: The case of Frisian Ulana Plawuszcak: Professionalism in a changing world: The condition of knowledge in the field of contemporary second language teacher learning Elizabeth Erling, Michael Brummer, Sandra Radinger: The relationship between languages of migrants, socioeconomic status, and English language learning in Austria
11:30 – 12:30	Lunch Break	ECML, foyer
12:30 – 14:30	Oral Presentations	Session 5: Linguistic Resources Chair: Christina Korb Nadja Kerschhofer-Puhalo, Nikolay Slavkov: Languages foregrounded or backgrounded? An examination of complex repertoires Daniela Waldburger: Swahili in the speech of mine workers in Lubumbashi (DR Congo)

		Lucija Šimičić, Antonio Oštarić: From an attempt to fit the local to an imperative to follow the global: Language as an economic resource in the public space of the town of Zadar (Croatia) Afrida Aainun Murshida: The politics of 'language in use' for constructing 'identities' in the literatures by the South Asian Diaspora
14:30 – 15:00	Coffee Break	ECML, foyer
15:00 – 16:00	Oral Presentations	Session 6: Grass-Roots Movements and Revitalization Chair: Vera Ferreira Vlada Baranova: Urban Kalmyk: Revitalization, 'new speakers', and online activism Laura Ambrosio, Monika Jezak: Linguistic plurality and social reflection: The community engagement approach
19:30	Conference Dinner	Landhauskeller , Schmiedgasse 9, http://www.landhaus-keller.at/

Friday – November 22, 2019
8:30 – 9:30	Keynote	Josefina Skerk: Revitalization of the Sámi languages with a special focus on South Sámi
9:30 – 10:00	Coffee Break	ECML, foyer
10:00 – 12:00		Session 8: Minority Languages and their Speakers Chair: Vera Ferreira Judith Purkarthofer: Lived language experiences of minority language speakers – families, education and other multilingual contexts Miroslav Valeš: Power relations between Spanish and A Fala, minority language of Extremadura, Spain Kimmo Granqvist: Swedish Finnish Kale dialect Elke Murlasits: Crossed out and deleted: Denied linguistic plurality in Graz during 1880-1910 as found in the documents of the decennial censuses
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch Break	ECML, foyer
13:00 – 14:30	Oral Presentations	Session 9: Language Endangerment and Revitalization Chair: Oana Hergenröther Melike Üzümlü, Nurettin Demir: A bilingual community in Turkey: The case of Poshas

		Gülşah Türk: Temporality aspect in the language ideologies of Lazuri speakers in Turkey Egwu Roseline: Bridging the lexical gaps: A strategy for Igbo language revitalization
14:30 – 15:00	Coffee Break	ECML, foyer
15:00 – 16:30	Oral Presentations	Session 10: Language Learning in a Global World Chair: Julia Gspandl Evgeniya Klyukina, Marina Vorontsova: Power Relations between Languages and Language Diversity – Pedagogical Implications Eva Seidl: Linguistic identities and language power relations from a student perspective Kosmas Vlachos: New Media Pedagogies in the Greek EFL context
16:30	Conference Close	ECML, conference room

.....
LOW 2019

Languages in an Open World

20.–22.11.2019 Graz, Austria languages-open-world2019.uni-graz.at low2019@uni-graz.at